Manuscript publication is a requirement for an oral presentation to be given at Titanium 2019. The authors should provide a document with a maximum length of 20000 characters (including spaces) for contributed presentations or posters and 25000 characters for plenary sessions and keynote sessions. The proceeding should be submitted online using the dedicated platform.

Manuscript should be written in English. Proof-reading by fluent English speakers is recommended for non-fluent English speakers. Submitted manuscripts should be formatted by the authors according to the guidelines of the present document. Its format serves as an example.

Please note that the authors have to return a filled Publication Right form available on the submission portal. Deadline for reception of the manuscript and publication form is 1st of May 2019. At this date, texts would be then reviewed for publication. Comments could be sent by reviewers to authors in order to modify or precise some data in the manuscript.

Title and authors affiliations

General guidelines

The title of the manuscript should be the same as submitted for the presentation. The complete list of authors should be given under the title with the corresponding affiliations. The corresponding author and an email address should be indicated as well.
